

Master Showmanship Contest

(Formerly Round Robin)

No entry fees; no premiums, American system of judging
3rd Party Awards

Large Animal Round Robin – 9:00 a.m. Saturday, August 7, 2010

Rules & Guidelines for Large Animal Master Showmanship:

- An individual can enter Master Showmanship for winning first place in Novice or Advanced Showmanship classes in Beef, Dairy Cattle, Dairy Goats, Sheep, Swine, Horse Or Market Goat
- Novice winners who also won Advanced Showmanship must show in Advanced Master Showmanship.
- No second place individual will be eligible Master Showmanship.
- Results will be announced and awards will be presented at a combined 4-H and FFA Awards Ceremony held on Saturday evening.

Section 218: 4-H Large Animal Master Showmanship

- Class: 1. Novice Master Showmanship – (No Horses Shown)
2. Advanced Master Showmanship

Section 219: FFA Large Animal Master Showmanship

- Class: 1. Novice Master Showmanship – (No Horses Shown)
2. Advanced Master Showmanship

SANTA CLARA COUNTY SUPER STEER CONTEST

Sponsored by the Santa Clara County Cattlemen' Association to promote and showcase local, quality beef production

Entry Fee: $20.00 – Use Market Animal Entry Form – Write in Affiliation as Independent
Show Time – Will follow Junior Cattle Shows on Thursday, August 5, 2010

Awards will be presented at the Jr. Beef Carcass Contest Awards Presentation

No Monetary awards – Ribbons for placings – Overall Championship Buckle

Open to Santa Clara County adult residents (can not be eligible to show in Jr division)

All steers must be bred and fed in Santa Clara County (exhibitors must be able to verify)

Limited to one entry per exhibitor

All steers must be pre-tagged at the Jr. division tagging (April 1, 2010)

All steers must be weighed in at the Fair by 5pm on Monday, August 2, 2010

All steers must be within the 950-1350 # live weight range (class may be split by wt)

All steers in competition must be processed

Any steer weighing less than 950 or greater than 1350 at weigh-in will be ineligible to compete. Steers may remain on grounds and go to processing at the owner's expense.

All steers will be stalled in the Super Steer area. All steers must be cared for and shown by the exhibitor. Pens must be cleaned & maintained appropriately as a display for the public. Failure to do so can result in removal from the grounds & forfeiture of all fees paid. No Jr division exhibitors are to care for or show Super Steers.

Exhibitors will retain ownership of steers through processing and are responsible for fees including cut and wrap.

Steers will be judged & placed in the live class which will count for 40% of the final score.

Carcasses will be evaluated & placed at the processing facility which will count for 60% of the final score. Carcasses must meet the CBCIA Carcass of Merit standard to remain in competition:

Hot carcass weight	600-900#
Quality Grade	SE+ or higher
Final Yield Grade	3.5 or lower

Over The Hill Showmanship

5:00 PM , Friday August 6, 2010

No fees, no premiums

Rules & Guidelines:

- Open to parents, Leaders, and volunteers of the 4-H or FFA Organizations.
- No advance registration required; all eligible entrants present at the start of each class will be accepted.
- Each species will be judged by the 1st place youth winners of Showmanship classes for the species.
- In Silly classes the entrants can wear costumes, use props, and make fun of showing.
- In Serious classes the entrants will be judged in the same manner as the Showmanship classes for the youth, including having to correctly answer questions asked by the judges.

MARKET STEER

- Class: 1. Silly Class
2. Serious Class

MARKET SHEEP

- Class: 1. Silly Class
2. Serious Class

MARKET SWINE

- Class 1. Silly Class
2. Serious Class

MARKET GOAT

- Class 1. Silly Class
2. Serious Class