Supervisor Cortese Commends 70th Santa Clara County Fair

San Jose, CA – During a break at the Santa Clara County Fair’s Junior Livestock Auction, Third District Supervisor Dave Cortese presented a commendation to Delana Romero, Executive Director of the Santa Clara Fairgrounds.

The commendation read in part “The Fair provides a connection to agriculture and history so families will not forget the Valley of the Hearts Delight; and the Fair continues to evolve and be relevant to new residents.”

The supervisor reiterated his support and commitment to the Fair and Fairgrounds to loud cheers and applause from the overflow crowd of auction buyers and youth supporters. Romero thanked the supervisor “For your strong support of the Fairgrounds, an irreplaceable community facility.”

The 70th Santa Clara County Fair runs through Sunday, August 3, 2014, at the Fairgrounds on Tully Road in San Jose. Information is available at TheFair.org
